

Pick three topics and write for 5 minutes on each topic:

1. If you could have your parents make any meal for you what would you choose? Tell me about each type of food and why you love it so much.

2. What would you do if you had $1,000? What would you buy? Would you save any of it? Would you keep it all to yourself?

3. If you had the day off school, what would you do? Describe your 'free day' to me.

4. What is your favorite subject in school? Why? What do you like about it?

5. Come up with three reasons why your parents should buy you a phone. Be very detailed. Imagine you are trying to convince them. You want to have a strong argument.
